Introduction of New Deacons

L. C. Barnett has been a lifelong resident of Winn Parish. He is a self-employed consultant for Chesapeake Energy. He has been a member of FBC since 2003. He is a member of the “Basically 39 and Holding” Sunday School class. He is part of the Security Team at FBC serving as Hall Monitor. He is also a member of the First Impressions Team. He is married to Sharon Barnett and they have two children, Nick (Leslie) and Emily (Jamey).

Chase Creel has lived in Winn Parish his whole life. He grew up at FBC where he made a profession of faith at ten years old. After marriage, he attended Union Baptist Church, where he was ordained as a deacon in 2006. In 2017, he and his family moved their letters to FBC. He is married to Theresa and their children are Landon and Madalyn. He is an active member of the “Basically 39 and Holding” Sunday School class. When he is not at work at the Campti mill, he volunteers with the youth and the children’s events and is on the Security Team. He helps his wife with the children’s ministry on Wednesday nights.

Rex Lasyone has lived in Winn Parish for 24 years. He works as an auctioneer and is the owner of Lasyone Auctions. He has been a member of FBC since 2011. He has been married to Ashley Lasyone for 23 years. They have three children: Kaylie, Kolby, and Kayson and one grandson, Ryder. Rex and Ashley are blessed to have had all three children profess Christ and be baptized at FBC. He is a member of the “Basically 39 and Holding” Sunday School class. Rex enjoys helping with all the planning and preparations for Judgment House and looks forward to working behind the scenes in Heaven each time.
